

A Army Community Service (ACS) invites you to visit and utilize the ACS Yellow Ribbon Room building that is designed to provide a place for the Camp Darby service members, Department of Defense (DoD) Civilians and Families.

S ervices provided include: a cozy Family lounge with large screen TV/VCR, X-box, Yellow Ribbon Room with 4 e-mail stations with teleconferencing capability, a top notch child playroom for children complete with an array of toys, books, games and small scale furniture, a fully loaded kitchen and conference room.

C lassroom sessions, roundtable support group settings, welcome home activities, etc provided to help Families handle difficult situations during the service member's/civilian's deployment. Sometimes you need the shoulder, support and advice of someone who has been through a deployment before. The ACS Yellow Ribbon Room building offers a place to find that type of support in addition to a place to hold meetings and trainings.
