Trip Details:

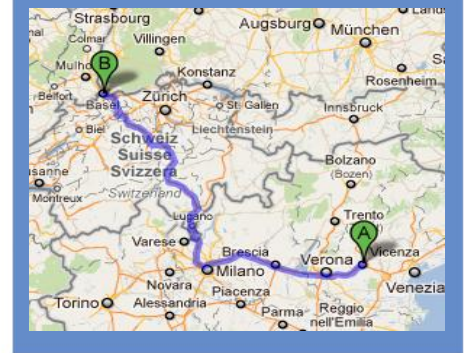

Come along on a journey through Basel, Colmar, Strasbourg, and Nancy. Basel is a small city of global format in Switzerland. It is a European cultural centre with almost 40 museums, the Basel Theatre staging plays, operas and ballet, as well as 25 further small theatres, a musical stage, countless galleries, and music stages of all sizes.

After visiting Basel, we'll head toward Colmar and experience it's charming downtown with it's well preserved Middle Ages appearance with half-timbered houses, balconies, facades with ornate wood sculptures, paintings from the Renaissance. We'll also be visiting Strasbourg, France with its monumental cathedral featuring carvings as delicate as any piece of lacework. Strasbourg is definitely well worth a visit to discover its history, its cuisine and its unique atmosphere.

7 a.m. – depart from Chapel Gates (Friday)

1 p.m. – arrive to Basel, Switzerland

9 p.m. – arrive back to Post (Sunday)
